

STUDENTS SARA IS STUDENT CENTERED

NC-SARA Mission:

- Access
- Quality and Value of Distance Education
- Student Consumer Protection

INSTITUTIONS PARTICIPATE IN SARA

SARA institutions are approved to participate by states.

STATES SARA MEMBERS

Each state's SARA State Portal Entity (SPE) reviews and oversees institution participants. States belong to Regional Compacts.

REGIONAL COMPACTS MHEC, SREB, NEBHE, WICHE

Regional Compacts have staff and steering committees who are responsible for evaluating applications from states. Staff also answer questions about SARA, assist SPEs, and apply SARA policy.

NC-SARA NATIONAL LEADERSHIP

NC-SARA leads national coordination in collaboration with and across the Regional Compacts. Working with all stakeholders, NC-SARA partners to review, develop, and serve as the steward of policy, supporting implementation by Regional Compacts, states, and institutions. NC-SARA also collects and disseminates data and oversees several national-level initiatives around distance education.

NC-SARA BOARD GOVERNS

The NC-SARA Board's role is to govern NC-SARA. The board represents stakeholders in developing SARA policy, and makes final determinations about SARA policy.
