

NC-SARA Board Announces Call for Nominations for New Board Members

June 1, 2023

The NC-SARA Board is now accepting nominations from the public for two new board members to begin three-year terms in January 2024, with possible re-election to an additional three-year term. Nominations are open from June 1, 2023 – July 5, 2023. Nominees will be reviewed by the Governance and Nominations Committee, which will then make recommendations for consideration and a vote by the Board at its October 2023 meeting.

About the NC-SARA Board

The NC-SARA Board includes the presidents of the four regional compacts, as well as leaders from states, institutions, accreditors, and other higher educational organizations and associations, to assure that the perspectives of all stakeholder groups are represented, while keeping the board small enough to be workable and effective. With the exception of the four regional compact leaders, there are not specific roles on the board for individual stakeholder groups.

The Board has several committees and task groups to help to facilitate its activities and governance:

- Executive Committee
- Finance Committee
- Strategy Committee
- Policy Committee
- Governance & Nominations Committee
- Consumer Protection Task Force

Board Members' General Responsibilities

- Attend and prepare for two 2-day in-person board meetings (spring and fall).
- Attend and prepare for virtual board meetings (winter and summer; and as needed).
- Serve on one or more of the board's committees.
- Contribute to the overall leadership and governance of NC-SARA by following the by-laws and procedures of the NC-SARA Board.
