NC-SARA Policy Regarding Late Fees

What late fees does NC-SARA charge to institutions?

What does the SARA Policy Manual Say?

Subsection 3.7.b.5 provides details regarding the timeline and process for annual renewal application review. According to SARA policy, “Upon notice of an approved renewal application, the institution shall submit its renewal fee to NC-SARA within 30 calendar days of the date the institution is approved as renewed, but before the participation end date. A 30-day (calendar) grace period beyond the institutional participation end date is granted if the institution has been approved for SARA participation by the SARA State Portal Entity before the participation end date. If payment has not been received by NC-SARA within 30 calendar days of the participation end date, a late fee of 5% of the institution's renewal fee is applied if payment is received within five business days. The institution remains listed on NC-SARA's list of participating institutions. The institution is designated "Approved." Institutions are not listed as current SARA institutions until their payment is received by NC-SARA.”

Additional references to institutional late fees can be found in the following subsections of the SARA Policy Manual:

- 3.7.c, Grace period
- 3.7.d, Institution participation deadline extension
- 3.7.e, New institution participation deadline extension

What is the rationale?

NC-SARA is a private nonprofit organization that helps expand students' access to educational opportunities and ensure more efficient, consistent, and effective regulation of distance education programs. NC-SARA is solely funded by the fees that institutions pay for their participation in SARA. The policy regarding late fees is outlined in the SARA Policy Manual.

What does my institution need to do?

- Ensure that contact information for your institution is current by communicating any changes to your SARA State Portal Entity (SPE) regularly. Institution contacts will receive renewal reminders 90, 60, and 30 days before the renewal date.
- Communicate with your accounting department about the due date for annual SARA fees to ensure that payments are made promptly.
- Consider electronic payment options to expedite payment. NC-SARA offers three online payment options: credit card, eCheck, or Automated Clearing House (ACH).
